Words & music by TripleShift

V1

In your walk, you're claiming victory
But behind closed doors, tragedy
There's a peace you'll never know, if you deny His grace
And all it takes, is time and place

Ch.1

Was it me
Was I the one who drove the nails
Was it me
Was it me, and still He gave His other hand,
To me

V2

Material, we fall into the chains of man
Physical, the honey tongue betrays the Lamb
Which master do you serve today, how blind you are to me
Open eyes, set you free

Ch.2

Was it me
Was I the one who drove the nails
Was it me
Was it me, and still He gave His other hand,
To me

Br.

Take His hand, you'll understand
Take His hand, you'll understand
Take His hand, you'll understand
Take His hand, you'll understand

Ch.3

Was it me
Was I the one who drove the nails
Was it me
Was it me, and still He gave His other hand,
To me
Was it me
Was I the one who cast the lots
Was it me
Was it me, and still He gave His other hand,
To me
